

CONCERTS IN THE PARK

- 12:15 Terrace Bhangra Club
Local Punjabi dance club performing Bhangra music
- 12:30 Boss Blues band
This band has been playing together for the last 6 years, a great blues & rock act to start the live music in the park.
- 1:15 Lil' Kiki, Jimi and the wolf
Rockin' blues trio with a big sound
- 2:00 After hours
Four friends coming together to play some rock'n'roll. Most of the members are originally from Prince Rupert (liquid sunshine of the Northwest) but love living in sunny Terrace.
- 2:45 Playback
The sounds of the 70's & 80's from this hi energy local band. This band continues to be a favourite at many festivals.
- 3:30 Sound Collision
Terrace rockers doing what they do best, playing rock'n'roll with a few originals in the mix.
- 4:15 King Crow & the ladies from hell
This new local band has created quite a stir as of late, they are an 8 piece dance band that play a mix of many styles. You don't want to miss this.
- 5:00 Triple Bypass
Prince Rupert's hardest working band delivers a solid non-stop rock'n'roll set.
- 5:45 Coldwater
Hi energy local band that has a lot of fun onstage, make sure to get up and dance to one of Terrace's premier bands.
- 7:00 Honeymoon Suite – 2011 Concerts headline act
Entered in a Toronto radio station contest in 1983, the song "New Girl Now" made more than a local splash for the band Honeymoon Suite. It set the stage for international fame, platinum record sales and a long career among the most celebrated of Canadian Rock bands. Honeymoon Suite has toured alongside the likes of the Kinks, Heart and Z Z Top, had their music appear in TV and movie soundtracks and received numerous awards, including the 1986 Juno for Group of the Year. Honeymoon Suite are Johnnie Dee (vocals, guitar), Derry Graham (lead guitar), Peter Nunn (keyboards), Dave Betts (drums) and Gary Lalonde (bass).
